

4th Annual Adair County Genealogy, History & Book Fair

10 October 2015

The Adair Heritage Society, Adair Genealogical Society, Adair County Public Library, and Jane Lampton Chapter Daughters of American Revolution, are sponsoring the Fourth Annual History-Genealogy Book Fair & Sale on Saturday, 10 October 2015, from 9:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. Central Time.

This event will be in conjunction with and coincide with Downtown Days, Columbia's Annual Historic Celebration.

The event will be held in the Historic Adair County Courthouse, 500 Public Square, the dead center of town, in Columbia, Kentucky. Admission & parking are free, and the event is open to all.

Enclosed map shows the location of the facility, which is easily accessible from Louis Nunn Parkway, highways 55, 61, 80, and 206. Vendor loading & unloading will be at the Greensburg Street entrance. We want to use this event to offer the public the many and varied publications that may only be available from the participating historical and genealogical societies and individuals of the region. Lunch will be available from nearby restaurants and vendors.

Participating vendors, authors, and societies are being charged $10 per 6 foot table and 2 chairs. Vendors are welcome to bring their own table(s) at a discounted fee. No other fees are required and participants retain all proceeds from their sales. If you plan to participate, please contact by 30 September 2015.
